

ART MAJOR WITH CONCENTRATION IN GENERAL ART HISTORY

Major Requirements

The art history concentration emphasizes the role of the visual arts in cultural history. Courses in art history, as well as fundamental studio experience, provide a basis for careers in such areas as museum work, art conservation, curatorship, research and college teaching. In most of these careers, graduate work beyond the bachelor's degree is expected.

The requirements for an art history concentration in the general art major are a minimum of 32 credits:
